Package Details

Indulge in a refined French getaway with a five-night stay for up to six guests in a lovely three-bedroom, three-bathroom private home ideally located just ten minutes from Épernay, the capital of the Champagne region. Blending cozy comfort with modern contemporary style, the home offers inviting living spaces and a warm, relaxed atmosphere—an ideal retreat after days spent exploring vineyards and historic towns. This immersive experience includes small-group tours of two of the world’s most prestigious Champagne houses: Moët & Chandon in Épernay and Veuve Clicquot in Reims, each featuring guided visits through their legendary underground chalk cellars and elegant tastings that highlight centuries of craftsmanship and heritage. Guests will also enjoy visits to two boutique wineries—one in a Grand Cru village in the Reims Mountains and another in a Grand Cru village in the Côte des Blancs—offering intimate cellar tours and tastings that showcase the artistry, terroir, and character of small-producer champagnes, including the region’s celebrated Chardonnay. A private three-course dinner prepared in your home by a personal chef adds an extra touch of indulgence, allowing you to savor thoughtfully crafted dishes made with fresh, seasonal ingredients in a relaxed and elegant setting. With booking assistance and dedicated concierge service included, this experience is perfectly complemented by the surrounding region’s charm—from cycling or walking through vineyard-lined countryside and visiting local markets to exploring the historic Reims Cathedral, quaint villages, and gourmet dining—creating a truly unforgettable escape into the heart of France’s Champagne country.
