Package Details

Enjoy an authentic Irish countryside escape with a seven-night stay for up to eight guests in a beautiful four-bedroom, four-bathroom private lodge set near the picturesque town of Killarney in County Kerry. Designed for comfort and relaxed gatherings, the lodge offers spacious living areas, inviting bedrooms, and a warm, welcoming atmosphere, all surrounded by rolling green hills, sparkling lakes, and the breathtaking scenery that defines this iconic region. Your stay includes an exclusive private chef dinner prepared in your accommodation using fresh, local, and seasonal ingredients (drinks not included), as well as a visit to a traditional working sheep farm where you'll witness skilled sheepdog demonstrations and gain a fascinating insight into Ireland's rural heritage. Guests will also enjoy a guided whisky tour and tasting at a local distillery, learning about the craftsmanship and history behind Ireland's world-renowned spirit while sampling a curated selection of whiskies in an authentic setting. Utilities, final cleaning, and booking support are included, along with concierge service to help arrange additional activities throughout your stay. From exploring Killarney National Park and visiting historic castles and abbeys to discovering charming villages, artisan markets, and lively traditional pubs, this experience offers the perfect balance of natural beauty, cultural immersion, and warm Irish hospitality for an unforgettable journey into the heart of Ireland.
